

THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.
BEAVER COUNTY, ss:

To the Honorable the Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Beaver County:

The petition of Claude F. Boardman of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in said county, and a native of Beaver county, respectfully showseth: That he declared on oath before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Beaver County, Pennsylvania, on the 24th day of December, A.D. 1802, that it was bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentially or sovereignly whatever, particularly to the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and a native of India, Governor of Adelphi, that at the time of his arrival he was under eighteen years of age; that he has continued to reside in the United States since that period; that for three years previous to his arrival at full age it was and still is, bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and of renouncing forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potential, state or sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and Empress of India, Governor of Adelphi ever pray, etc.

By law, he may be admitted a citizen of the United States of America, and he will be entitled to all the rights and privileges of a natural born citizen of the United States, and to renounce all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potential, state or sovereignty whatever, and to renounce all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentially or sovereignly whatever, particularly to the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland
and a native of India, Governor of Adelphi,
period; that for three years previous to his arrival at full age it was and still is, bona fide his
fidelity to any foreign prince, potential, state or sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the Queen
ever pray, etc.
